

Bat – dot to dot

Bats are not flying mice, they are not even remotely related to rodents. Bats are so unique that scientists have given them a group of their own called Chiroptera which means hand-wing. Bats are not blind. Bats are the only mammals that can fly. Most bats can see as well as humans. Bats are great pollinators.

