

Birds of a Feather

The nuthatch is blue and travels upside down on trees in search of insects.

Our area is the southern range for the Raven. They are much larger than crows.

The Osprey is a fish eating hawk. You may see nests built for Ospreys on top of hydro poles.